

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation, and it scares me to death.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest, not force their political bias on viewers across the nation.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
